"BATHTUB TRUST" IS FOUND GUILTY

Jury Returns Verdict After Considering Case for Four Hours.

CONSPIRACY

Penalty for Convicted Men Is Imprisonment and Heavy

Detroit, Mich., February 14.-The s called "bathtub trust" to-day was found guilty of criminal conspiracy in restraint of trade by a jury in the United States District Court here. The act, as charged, is a misdemeanor, and the penalty provides imprisonment not exceeding one year and fine of $5,000, or both.

Last November the so-called trust was dissolved by the Supreme Court in a civil suit instituted at Baltimore. The criminal case to-day was a retrial, the first trial having resulted in a dis-

After the announcement of the verdict Judge Clarence W. Sessions adjourned court until to-morrow at 10 o'clock, when he will pronounce sentence. It was the second antitrust case decided in favor of the government in the local court within the last week, the other case being against the "boot and shoe last trust."

The jury required four hours to reach a verdict.
